Bob,

I apologize for the late response. I've just been super busy at the office for the past few days. After doing research, I found out that INOX and Edelstahl Rostfrei is not a brand, but different ways of saying 'stainless'. Edelstahl Rostfrei is actually 'stainless steel' in German. The 18/10 represents the Chromium and Nickel contents of the steel. So in this case, the stainless steel consists of 18% chromium and 10% nickel.

Therefore, I cannot find out which company manufactured the bowl or the brand associated with it. If you would like general manufacturers of stainless steel bowls in Korea, please let me know.

Best Regards,
Tina
